Our Vision

To create and continuously support a legacy of principled leaders for the greater Rochester community

Program Format

Approximately 40-45 people are chosen each year from a selective application and interview process to participate in this 10-month leadership program. Group participants immerse themselves in a topical community issue, one Friday per month. Hands-on activities change monthly, as does the roster of relevant community leaders that offer their insights on a 360-degree view of the topic at hand.

Program Goals

The goal of the Leadership Rochester program is to take business and organizational leaders above and beyond within their organizations and community. At Leadership Rochester we go beyond personal leadership development and prepare participants for community leadership in the greater Rochester community.

Our goals are:

- To engage and cultivate civic leadership in those who represent a cross-section of business, industry, education, non-profit, and government organizations
- To develop a better understanding of what it means to be a community leader
- To develop a deeper understanding of economic and social challenges in the community
- To learn about assets and resources strengthening the community
- To create an environment where class members forge a strong bond and learn to approach challenges creatively using their collective talents and experiences

Employer Benefits

- Strengthens the organization's connection and participation in community affairs
- Develops employees with increased organizational, leadership and problem-solving skills
- Gives companies new access to a network of community leaders and resources
- Increases name recognition for the sponsoring employer organization
- Gives companies new insights into the challenges and opportunities in the Rochester community and how the organization may strengthen their community.

Community Benefits

- Develops a committed, knowledgeable group of people that are prepared to be leaders in the community
- Results in expanded community involvement by the participants
- Instills a greater appreciation for the current challenges and strengths of the community
- Encourages creative partnerships and initiatives between public & private sectors

Participant Benefits

- Increased awareness of one's own individual leadership style

 Leadership Rochester values the health and safety of its participants. Due to the fluid situation surrounding COVID-19, the Leadership Rochester signature program may be subject to change. Current program participants and applicants will be advised of any necessary modifications. We appreciate your patience as we navigate this challenging time together.*

Additional Experiences:

In addition to the above program dates, class members have access to many outside educational and networking opportunities during their program experience that can greatly enhance the overall impact of the program. These events are optional, and participants can choose what works for their calendar. However, participants are expected to find time to attend at least three opportunities. These include such things as court visits, meetings with local officials, police ride-alongs, class service events, community events, and more.

Service Leadership in Action

LR2021 class members will design and lead a service initiative in the community as part of their LR experience. Participants can also expect to take on experiential leadership roles in their cohort class throughout the year. Some roles may be temporary for one class day, while others may run the entire year.

Intensity and Time Commitment

At Leadership Rochester we value each participant's time and our class time together. Our class members and community leaders are busy people. We understand. That is why we make the most of our time together and pack a lot into our days. Participants are asked to attend all program days in full. Participants who miss more than two of them may be removed from the program.

Sample Program Days

Get Grounded Day

Get Grounded Day is focused on educating class participants on the overall issues facing the greater Rochester area. Participants will be involved in a "hands-on" road rally, providing an appreciation for the cultural and economic forces that impact daily life in the neighborhoods of greater Rochester and Monroe County. Teams visit with local community leaders and residents.

Who Takes Care of Whom Day

This day is focused on the human services side of our community. Participants hear from various providers of human services and can experience how the system works from a client's perspective. Program Day leaders in the past included Dennis Richardson (President and CEO of Hillside Family of Agencies), Chris Hilderbrant (Director of Community Advocacy at the Center for Disability Rights) and leaders of Sanctuary House, East House, Francis Center, Genesis House, Huther Doyle, Open Door Mission, Sojourner House, Place of Hope, and more.

Education Day

Education Day is focused on identifying and exploring the diverse challenges facing students and their barriers to academic success and self-sufficiency. Participants examine how daily challenges facing students impact the school's ability to deliver effective education. Past participants included Bolgen Vargas (former Superintendent of Rochester City Schools) Michael Pero (Superintendent of Pittsford, former superintendent of Canandaigua and Fairport Schools), Dr. Al Simone (retired President of RIT), Peter Murphy (Director of Policy, NYS Charter Schools Association), Dr. Walter Cooper (Regent Emeritus NY State), Dan Drmacich (former Principal, School without Walls).

Building Common Ground Day

Building Common Ground Day examines diversity and inclusion as part of community dynamics. Participants are challenged to examine their own beliefs and attitudes, gaining insight into how they impact their own behaviors. A panel discussion comprised of Rochester leaders with various diversity challenges lead an informative, emotional discussion. Past speakers have included Dr. Keith Jenkins (Vice President for Diversity and Inclusion at RIT), Rick DeJesus (Vice President, St John Fisher), Kesha Carter (Chief Diversity Officer at CCSI), Michelle Hutchinson (Partner, Brown Hutchinson), Willie Lightfoot (LR '07 alum, as well as Monroe County Legislator and Rochester firefighter), Gap Mangione (Musician), Constance Mitchell (first African American representative of the Monroe County Legislature), Darryl Porter (former Asst. to the Mayor, City of Rochester).

Justice for All/Public Safety Day

Justice for All day offers a unique experience whereby the participants see the justice system from numerous perspectives. Participants are offered the opportunity to ride-along with the police or sheriff departments, visit the 911 Emergency Call Center for Monroe County, and participate in a simulated judgment shooting. Program Day leaders have included Monroe County Sheriff Todd Baxter, Rochester Police Chiefs, Michael Ciminelli and La’Ron Singletary, District Attorney Sandra Doorley, Public Defender Tim Donaher, NYS Supreme Court Justice Honorable Craig Doran, Superintendent Ron Harling (LR ’05 alum) of the Monroe County Jail and Monroe Correctional Facility, and David Koon (LR ’96 alum), former Assemblyman, 135th Assembly District.

Economic Development Day

Economic Development Day is focused on the strengths and challenges facing the Rochester economy. Participants hear from local business owners in addition to organizations tasked with growing the local economy. Some program day speakers have included Matt Hurlbutt (Greater Rochester Enterprise), Robert Duffy (LR ’92 alum and CEO Greater Rochester Chamber of Commerce), Vinnie Esposito (NYS Finger Lakes Economic Development Council), Heidi Zimmer-Meyer (Rochester Downtown Development Council), Joel Seligman (former President, University of Rochester), Dana Miller (former Rochester City Council Vice President & Ret. VP Development of RACF); Joe Morelle (New York State Assembly Majority Leader), and Jack Marren (Chairman Ontario County Board of Supervisors).

Health Care Day

This day educates class participants on the strengths and challenges facing the health care sector in Rochester. Panelists share views across a broad range of subjects from prescription drug costs to the Affordable Care Act, community health initiatives and inequities within the healthcare system. Program Day leaders have included Mark Cronin (COO, Accountable Health Partners at UR), Dr. Brad Berk (past President, University of Rochester Medical Center, Dr. Bridgette Wiefeling (Senior Vice President, Rochester Regional Health), and Wade Norwood (CEO, Common Ground Health).

Closing Program Day

The closing retreat is a day for reflection. The class spends quality time reflecting on the lessons learned from the focused sessions, discussing both immediately actionable plans and longer term “dreams” for community growth. Past speakers on this day have included Lovely Warren (Rochester Mayor), Cheryl Dinolfo (Monroe County Executive) and Jamie Saunders (CEO, United Way) and more.

Tuition

Tuition is $3,000 and due by October 30, 2020. This cost is typically paid by the employer. Payment plans may be available in unique cases.

Estimated extra costs one may expect include $30-40 for books, as well as $50-70 for parking at different program day locations. Additionally, participants may choose to reserve a room at the hotel for the retreat for around $150 (this is optional).
