Terms and Finances

Attendance:

Leadership Rochester provides an educational experience unlike any other in our community. Participants are required to attend 10 full-day sessions. We ask that participants are not absent more than 2 days. While it's not required, we also encourage participants to attend the extra-curricular class experiences in the community as much as possible. These include such things as court visits, meetings with local officials, class team meetings, class community events, individual police ride-alongs, and more. To ensure a robust class experience for all members of the cohort-class, participants who are unable to fulfill their obligations may be asked to withdraw from the program.
